

KROLL INTERNATIONAL, LLC BODY ARMOR SALES AGREEMENT

Date: _____/_____/_____

We are a retailer selling to law enforcement officers and agree not to sell body armor to the general public. As a body armor retailer, it is our responsibility to provide the proper fit and level of protection requested by the end user. As such, we have received and understand all fitting instructions and guidelines relating to body armor products.

Non-law enforcement sales policy: A letter from a law enforcement officer (which is to include badge number) written on agency letterhead must be submitted for each body armor sale to anyone not employed by a law enforcement agency. The letter must indicate that the purchaser is of good character and describe the intended use of the product. It is to remain on file at the retailer's location.
